25 X 1	As shown, these figures did not include money for dependent housing which it later appeared CIA would have to provide. In dispatch dated 18 October 1951, preliminary estimates for such housing were sent to Readquarters. After careful study, however, it was found that the $350,000 already approved would be sufficient to cover all construction. Therefore, on March 7, 1952 the PRC approved a change within the project authorizing the D/CO to apply $125,000, already allocated to this project, to essential housing now previously included.
